

Rock On: Sustaining the Family Enterprise Session Descriptions

Session 1	Sex, Drugs & Rock & Roll -- Lessons from Metallica	Jeff Savlov	Take a deep dive into the Metallica "family" and explore the critical lessons for sustaining families and businesses of all kinds.
Session 2	Ransomed!	Moderator: Kevin Wentzel, Kopsis Panelists: Curt Kapperman, Anderson University; Jack Sterling, Hook Security; David Hyde-Volpe, Vizius	Hackers demanding ransom to release your company's own computer network? It's a real threat – learn how to defend yourself and your company.
Session 3	Bonuses: Not Just for Christmas	Leslie Hayes	Protect Against Inflation & Quiet Quitting with Creative Bonuses and Compensation
Breakout 1	The Line Down the Backseat: Working with Siblings.	Panel: Jeff Savlov, Ron Reese, Guest Families Moderated by Steve Nail	Dive into the joys and challenges of working with siblings and potentially gain some new insights.
	Building Better Boundaries	Lucy Henry	In a world of 24/7/365 connectivity, blending of family and business, and multiplying social media platforms, gain some practical help to establish and maintain personal and professional health.
Breakout 2	Almost Family: Supporting Non-Family Employees	Mary Alice Bowers T&S Brass	How can we best support and reward those team members who, while not technically related, are part of the company foundations.
	Breaking Up is Hard to Do: When Family Wants to Leave the Business or the Family.	Nick Nicholson/Haynsworth Law Firm	Change happens. When it does, how can the business and family continue to thrive?
Final Session	Future Music! Five Steps to Building a Sustainable Business and a Sustainable Family	Bob Morgan, SC Chamber of Commerce	Tested best practices to build a band that lasts.